

RJS Syllabus 2026 – Complete Rajasthan Judiciary Exam Structure & Study Guide

Understanding the revised structure of the RJS Syllabus 2026 is essential for every Rajasthan Civil Judge aspirant. The examination pattern, subject distribution, and statutory coverage have evolved significantly, especially after the enforcement of new criminal legislation. Candidates must align their preparation strategy strictly with the officially notified RJS framework to avoid conceptual gaps.

This guide explains the latest subject structure, paper-wise division, criminal law reforms, interview parameters, and strategic preparation direction. Anyone planning to appear in the Rajasthan Judicial Services examination should carefully study the updated RJS Syllabus before beginning structured preparation.

Always confirm final details through the official Rajasthan High Court notification.

Major Updates Introduced in the Revised Structure

The Rajasthan judiciary examination pattern reflects several academic and legislative modifications:

- Enforcement of Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023
- Enforcement of Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023
- Enforcement of Bharatiya Sakshya Adhinyam, 2023
- Inclusion of Hindu and Muslim personal laws
- Broader inclusion of Rajasthan-specific statutes
- Increased emphasis on judicial drafting

The transition from earlier criminal codes to new statutory frameworks makes conceptual clarity indispensable.

Selection Framework for Rajasthan Civil Judge

The recruitment process is conducted in three stages:

Stage 1 – Preliminary Test

Objective assessment qualifying in nature.

Stage 2 – Main Written Examination

Descriptive papers evaluating analytical reasoning and drafting skill.

Stage 3 – Viva-Voce Examination

Personality assessment and judicial aptitude evaluation.

Final ranking is based exclusively on marks secured in the mains examination and interview.

Preliminary Examination Structure

| Component | Details |
|-------------|-----------|
| Nature | Objective |
| Total Marks | 100 |
| Law Portion | 70 Marks |
| Hindi | 15 Marks |
| English | 15 Marks |
| Duration | 2 Hours |

Negative Marking Not Applicable

The preliminary stage under the RJS Syllabus 2026 carries qualifying importance only and does not contribute to the final merit.

Main Examination Structure

| Paper | Subject | Marks | Time |
|-----------|---------------|-------|---------|
| Paper I | Law | 100 | 3 Hours |
| Paper II | Law | 100 | 3 Hours |
| Paper III | Hindi Essay | 50 | 2 Hours |
| Paper IV | English Essay | 50 | 2 Hours |

The written stage measures legal interpretation skills, clarity of expression, and structured drafting ability.

Faculty at Jyoti Judiciary CLAT consistently observe that answer organization and issue framing determine scoring performance more than theoretical memorization.

Viva-Voce Assessment Parameters

Criteria Evaluation Focus

Marks 35

Scope Legal awareness, temperament, communication

The interview panel examines constitutional understanding, ethical orientation, and awareness of Rajasthan's socio-legal context.
